THE NATIONAL CHAMBER CHOIR MADRIGAL - MARIN CONSTANTIN

Founded in 1963 by the legendary musician and conductor Marin Constantin (1925 – 2011), the National Chamber Choir "Madrigal – Marin Constantin" has become a benchmark of musical life and cultural diplomacy at both national and international levels. It is defined by its distinctive sound, non-vibrato technique, stereophonic stage arrangement, and impressive costumes. Its repertoire spans over Renaissance, Pre-Classical and Classical music, Romanticism, Byzantine music, as well as contemporary Romanian and universal creations. The choir's stage presence and structure have been continuously refined, to such an extent that its performance has been compared by critics to "a Stradivarius violin in Paganini's hands."

Distinguished with numerous international awards, the Madrigal Choir has graced the world's most prestigious stages, performing in thousands of concerts and shows. In November 2016, the National Chamber Choir "Madrigal – Marin Constantin" has been officially recognized as an Ambassador of Freedom, Hope, and Peace, receiving the "Jean Nussbaum and Eleanor Roosevelt" Award at the United Nations Palace in Geneva during the Global Summit on Religion, Peace, and Security.

In 2023, celebrating 60 years of existence, the Madrigal Choir held its sixth tour in the U.S., performing at the United States Congress and in some of the largest cathedrals in New York, Washington D. C., Chicago and Seattle. The year 2024 brought an absolute world premiere - The Madrigal Choir embarked on its first South American tour, in Peru, performed concerts in Lima, Cusco and Aguas Calientes and shot a music video in Machu Picchu. In October 2024, the Madrigal Choir made a new video and gave an extraordinary concert at the Pantheon in Rome.

Since 2011, the Madrigal Choir has been running the Cantus Mundi National Program, Romania's largest social integration program through music for children, initiated by the renowned conductor Ion Marin. The program currently brings together 2,039 choirs and over 72,000 children from Romania and the diaspora.

MARIN CONSTANTIN

Founder Conductor of the Chamber Choir "Madrigal"

Asked in an interview how he would see a 100 year-old Madrigal, Maestro Marin Constantin replied: "I would like it to be as I still dream of it, but it should be no less than what those living at that time will dream it to be."
Born on February 27, 1925, in Urleta, Prahova county (Romania), Marin Constantin obtained in 1949 two degrees from the Faculty of Music Pedagogy (Choir Conducting section) of the Music Conservatory in Bucharest, respectively from the Faculty of Pedagogy, Psychology and Philosophy of the University of Bucharest. He became a Doctor of Musicology in 1985. In 1994, he was made Doctor Honoris Causa at the Academy of Music "Gh. Dima" from Cluj-Napoca. Legendary teacher, composer and conductor, Maestro Marin Constantin founded the "Madrigal" Chamber Choir in 1963, and acted as its conductor and manager for 47 years. At the same time, he had a prestigious career as a university professor and held several positions in cultural management, including that of General Director of the Romanian Opera (1966 - 1969).
Throughout his life, Marin Constantin was honored with many awards, decorations and distinctions, being the only Romanian who has ever received the title of "Ambassadeur de Bonne Volonté" of UNESCO (1992). Marin Constantin passed away on January 1, 2011.

ION MARIN

Honorary Director of the National Chamber Choir "Madrigal – Marin Constantin"

A fascinating personality of the international music scene, Ion Marin is one of the few conductors who excel both in symphonic and opera music. Ion Marin is officially recognised for his outstanding service to Romanian culture, art and image in the world, as well as for the social dimension of his impact. Since 2020, Ion Marin has been Professor at the prestigious Mozarteum University in Salzburg, coordinator of the "Claudio Abbado" choral conducting department and artistic director of its concert activity. He was awarded in 2021 the Chevalier de l'Ordre des Arts et des Lettres (Knight of the Order of Arts and Letters) by the French Republic for his "contribution and commitment to the service of culture". In the same year, he was appointed Honorary Consul of Romania in Lugano (Switzerland), an official recognition of his constant efforts in cultural diplomacy. On 1 February 2022, Ion Marin conducted the first concert of the Mozarteum Academic Orchestra, founded on his initiative.

LIVIU JICMAN

President of the Romanian Cultural Institute
President of European Union National Institutes for Culture - EUNIC

"Dear music lovers and friends of Romanian culture,

This autumn, we invite you to the 'Bridges Across Europe' tour of the National Chamber Choir 'Madrigal – Marin Constantin', starting in Chișinău, Republic of Moldova, and continuing into the heart of Europe, in Belgium and Luxembourg. The tour includes exceptional musical events organized in honor of Romania's National Day, scheduled as follows: Luxembourg, November 20, at Notre-Dame Cathedral; Brussels, November 21, at the Church of Our Lady of the Sablon; Bruges, November 23, at St. Anna Church; Brussels, November 24, at the Musical Instruments Museum (MIM); Antwerp, November 25, at AMUZ Concert Hall (St. Augustine Church).

The Madrigal's multi-annual tour, scheduled in partnership with the Romanian Cultural Institute (ICR) for the period 2022-2025, includes significant destinations across several continents – North America, South America, Europe, and Asia – so that the charm and virtuosity of Romanian choral music may reach all the corners of the world.

The cultural relationship between Romania and the European Union is rich and diverse. Alongside the Romanian Culture Day, we celebrate a series of historical events that define us as a nation: the Union of the Principalities, the Day of the Union of Bessarabia with Romania, Romanian Language Day, and, not least, Romania's National Day. Each of these moments represents an opportunity to present internationally recognized Romanian artists. At the same time, Romanian creators are connected and integrated into the European cultural environment, bringing their permanent contribution to European culture and strengthening our national identity under the framework of a common European heritage. The Madrigal Choir's concerts are more than simple events. We promote through them not only the essential values of Romanian performing arts, but also a blend of traditions, trends, and sensitivities that define us as a nation.
Let us enjoy this celebration of spirit and honor the essence of our culture through music!"
